GREEN RIVER GROWERS FAIL TO ORGANIZE

Daviess County Committee Resigns When 80 Per Cent is Not Obtained

Owensboro, Ky., Dec. 27 .- The effort to organize the farmers of the Green River district for the purpose of fixing the price of tobacco, and holding it, if it could not be sold at the fixed price, has failed. Following reports from various school precincts throughout the county Wednesday at a delegate meeting at the court house which indicated that only slightly more than seven million pounds of tobacco had been pledged to the proposed organization, which was to be known as the Green River Tobacco Marketing association, the executive committee of the association resigned and the efforts to or- the same time it is doing an important ganize the farmers of the county, work here at home. The executive committee composed of Will Haycraft, chairman, F K. Moseley, Henry Berry, Hiram ed States. Marksberry, Booth Barrett and Lum ong, had hoped to get ten million pounds of tobacco, which is estimated to be about eighty per cent of the crop in this county, pledged to the association. If this effort had been successful the organization would have been carried to every other county in the Green River district.

Progress is not measured by "figures on a dial" but in terms of achievement. Yet this New Year promises to mark the successful conclusion of one of the greatest readjustment periods in American history. It will stand out as a striking example of the whole-hearted American way of doing things when the right course is determined. For five years costs were rising and price increases accumulating. World wide conditions were responsible. It took a long and searching analysis to see that the only salvation was a complete readjustment. It has begun. Conditions representing the growth of five years have been remade in as many months. That's the "go get it" American way-the spirit that assures 1921 being a year of normal good times and prosperity.

Cut Your Butter Bills

The Original Nut Butter

Ship your cream to a creamery and use NU-COA at home. There are three advantages in doing this. Cream brings high prices. NUCOA costs less. Your save the time and effort of making butter. Many farmers are making a big profit in this manner. Why not you? NUCOA will delight you. NUCOA is churned from the sweet meat of cocoanuts in pasteurized milk—the result is a most appetizing and delicious nut butter that everyone in the family is glad to see come to the table. Children love it. Grownups prefer it.

NUCOA Meets Every Butter Requirement NUCOA is unexcelled for cooking or baking 265 days in the par. Keeps its rich, butter-like flavor down to the last pat in both winter and summer. NOTE:—If your grocer hasn't NUCOA send us his name and we'll send you a bound FREE.

STATE ON TRAIL OF

DOG TAX EVADERS

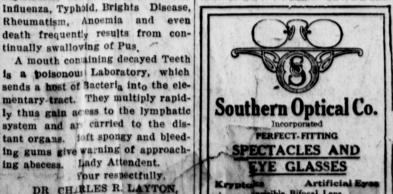

Krankfort, Ky. Dec. 25 -- Any person who keeps a dog and fails to pay the tax on it is subject to a fine. according to announcement of W. C. Hanna, Commissioner of Agriculture, Labor and Statistics.

One result of the announcement of Mr. Hanna has been that 1,400 citizens of Christian County have been indicted by the grand jury for failure to pay the dog tax. The tax is $2 for a female and $1 for a male dog, but the court costs, according to Hopkinsville reports, will swell the total in each case to a minimum of $16.

The law was passed in 1918. "Will you not," asks Mr. Hanna, in letters to County Attorneys, Now is the time to have your Dent- "make some prosecutions in your al work attended too. "Darn it! !" said Jane vigorously. The lady in the mirror was not attractive, though she might have been so a been years before. Her clothes were habby; hands rough and reddened; her hair, wholly neutral in color, was twisted into a firm knob on the back of her head, after the fashion of wemen who have no time to waste on personal adornment; she possessed nothing that could be classified as complexion, and her whole expression and attitude indicated unmitigated

"It's my turn now," said Jane to her double; "I mean to have the time of my life."

Jane deserved it. Thirteen years before, when she was eighteen, came the news of the disaster which had swept away both parents, leaving her te care for Jim and Nell, both too young to realize the full extent of the calamity. But now, for two years Jim had been "James L. Bedford, M. D.," and Nell was well along on her wedding journey, and of their united fortunes. Jane still had $1,500 left.

"It rightfully belongs to me," said Jane to the mirror lady; "I have earned it."

Hadn't she served Jim and Nell, both night and day? Hadn't she seen to it that they could hold their own with their young companions? Hadn't she sacrificed a college course that they might lack nothing? Madn't she distaissed the servants and herself cooked and scrubbed and mended until both were well settled in life? Hadn't she given Peter back his ring? Good old Peter! How he protested-how he coaxed-how he bewailed his fatehow he vowed he would wait until Jane had done her full duty as she it. The securing of public safety is only ish have made in Mesopotamia but it seems to be the one that has chiefly impressed the public mind. The first person who spoke to me of it was an Oriental a teacher of Arabic, Maude Radford Warren writes in the Saturday Evening Post. We sat in a house in Basra on a cloudy evening, looking out of the window, watching the shadowy forms of passersby.

"You will notice that the Arab houses have blank walls facing the street," he told me.

"If the walls are broken by windows these are barred. If there are doors these are small or else secured. Do not think this is done for the sake of keeping the women sheltered or the sun off. It is to keep thieves out.

"One night I was sitting in this house with my friends when a knock came at the door. First I looked out of the window. I saw a number of people on two sides of the house. I went to the door and I said: 'Who is there?' The answer was: 'I am a

"I suppose in America if anyone was so lunatic as to say that, you would telephone for the police. But here under the Turks it was wise to let the thleves in. Why not? There were too many of them, and they would have been angry and would have killed some of us in revenge some day. So we let in the man who knocked, and some of his friends came with him.

"They did not make polite greetings, but they took all the people into separate rooms, the women in one, the children in another, and the men in a third. This was because if they had been left together they might have secretly encouraged one another not to tell where money or jewels were hid-

"All the people in the house were very much afraid, and they told where their hiding places were, but said that they had been robbed only a few weeks previous and they had nothing

"The thieves were very angry. 'We must have something,' they said. So they sent for a cart, and they took what furniture and bedding and cooking dishes they wanted, and then went away. They left us our lives, and that was about all.

"You see how quiet these streets are even now, about nine o'clock? That is not entirely because Arabs prefer to go to bed early, though they do not keep late hours. But they have the old habit of not taking risks at night."
